

Lights on the Lake - Heartspring Christmas lights

2010-2011 ESA YEAR

*Let Your Life
Speak!*

(Left) Kim and her new friend, Max Lonthel sitting on the chair Kim bid on in the live auction and got stuck with on the second bid. Max was a Lake spokesman for Heartspring. (Right) Kim Becker, Heartspring spokesperson, promotes the Tree House project.

(Left )Terri Clark, Kim Kummer and Karen Knorp-Brown enjoy the lighting of the Heartspring campus. (Right) Max Lonthel prepares to flip the switch to light the Heartspring campus Christmas lights. Heartspring has been the State Project for the Kansas State Council for many years.

Max flips the switch and the lights filled the Heartspring campus. Heartspring uses the “Lights on the Lake” event to generate revenues. Donations are taken when people do a driving tour of the campus. The money supports the kids of Heartspring.

Kim Kummer, KSC President, represented the Council at this event Christmas 2010.

