Speak!*

Happy Hour

Social Committee: Sandie White, Chairman; Lisa Campbell, Sondra Messinger, Erin Metters and Mary Vanderpol lead the social hour activities for the weekend.

Members put together Valentine's Day cards for the students and clients of Heartspring and Goodwill Industries.

Committee Chairman's Meeting Saturday afternoon.

Leadership opportunities are abundant in ESA. Chairman and Committees continually work to make their efforts more productive and efficient at the board meetings.

KSC Board Meeting Sunday Morning

Fashion expert Erin Metters shows her style and Sunday bonnet. Sleeping at meetings is not allowed. Sandie White and Linda Schmidt are fined 2 nickels for this infraction! It would be more but the rest of us like naps too!

(Left) Angie Fairbanks, the enforcer, gives her report on membership. We need to build our membership in ESA. (Right) Erin Metters and Sandie caught concentrating on the business at hand at the meeting.

(Left) Pam McElvain uses a power point to tell us about Camp Hope and Easter Seal. (Right) Nancy Urbauer, ESA Foundation State Counselor, reports on the successful bingo for scholarship dollars of the previous evening. There are many scholarship applications now coming in to be judged.

(Left) The ESA Foundation Committee help Nancy hand out Foundation awards from last year. This is a busy time of year for ESA members as they prepare to submit their forms for all the work that they have been doing. (Right) Donna Dawson and her daughter make ESA a family affair.

We all headed home after the Sunday meeting hoping to beat a winter storm moving into the area.

We'll see you all at State Convention in Great Bend this April!!
