YOUR RETIRING PRESIDENT

Pauline Cowger

Your President Says:

We are on the threshold of another year —another year of promise of hope. A year in which there is much to accomplish, problems to face, responsibilities to meet, but with opportunity for all.

We are now building plans for the future. We feel the friendship and fellowship and express the hopes for the enrichment of each life, for the advancement and progress that finds its reward in work well done.

The State Council meeting is history. The thrill and excitement is over. We had problems and discussions—which we met with sound judgment and clear vision for the future of the Sorority.

Let us strive to have every person who was a member this past year renew her membership for the coming year. Your state dues are due June 1—and if the Treasurer remits them promptly — you can just forget about them for another whole year.

Elbert Hubbard said "our business in life is not to get ahead of other people, but to go get ahead of ourselves. To give as we have never given, and to work with more force and a finer finish than ever—that is the true idea."

With that thought as the watchword for each of us as individuals—and in our Chapters, we will go forward with vision and progress.—Pauline Cowger.

Owed to Mother

What do I owe my mother?
Countless things I could not name,
A Thousand ingrained hopes and aims,
A love of all things beautiful,
The stars at night and snowflakes
Softly falling from a winter's sky.

The love of books with all the joy that comes
From reading by a happy fire,
To see the streak of humor
That lies an almost hidden thread
In Life's bright tangled chain.

To have a care for others
To find pleasure in the kindly thought or word
That leaves a warmer heart behind,
To even keep above all else
A keen delight in life itself,
An eagerness for all that life can give
Toward building happiness.

These things and many more are mine
Because you, Mother, put them in my heart.

What words have I to truly frame
The tribute that my love would bring.
