I can now for the first time since my injuries, attend our family's Christmas gatherings in "normal-looking clothing"

Dear Sew Much Comfort Team,

I wanted to send this note to let you know how very much I appreciate your thoughtfulness and kindness

Thank you so much for all you've done for us and continue to do

My husband just received his adaptive clothing a few weeks ago and felt so much more comfortable after receiving them because he could actually wear

The Mission of Sew Much Comfort is to provide FREE adaptive (velcro closures) clothing to support our wounded service members from all branches of the Military and National Guard. Many injuries require large fixators, prosthetics or casts that are too bulky to fit under ordinary clothing. Without our adaptive clothing, wounded service members are limited to wearing hospital gowns during their recovery. Sew Much Comfort adaptive clothing allows them to wear normal looking adaptive clothing which enhances their comfort and dignity during their recovery process.

Sew Much Comfort proudly celebrated its 11th Anniversary last November. We are very proud of SMC accomplishments over the last decade. From the very beginning, SMC's focus has been about providing FREE adaptive clothing to positively impact our wounded warriors. All our innovation and development has been driven by the desire to serve our service members – "our Heroes". Although the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have officially ended, many troops remain in harm's way. We will continue our Mission until there is no longer a need for our services.

We provide adaptive clothing at many military hospitals and are set up to ship to individual service members as well. Sew Much Comfort is the only support charity providing FREE adaptive clothing for the Military. Our Mission is to provide wounded service members something better to recover in than a drafty hospital gown.

Sew Much Comfort has provided 148,500 pieces of adapted clothing over the past 11 years. We are truly blessed and greatly appreciate our amazing volunteers, donors and partners who have helped us to "honor, remember and support" our wounded service members as they recover from their injuries and transition back into their communities. Everyone's generosity is making a real difference for our wounded and for that we are forever grateful.

Sew Much Comfort continues to operate with low administrative overhead of 2.2%. That means 97.8% of every dollar donated to SMC is being spent providing FREE adaptive clothing to our wounded service members.

We salute all our Military and extend heartfelt thanks for your selfless service and sacrifice to our country. We also want to thank your families who have made sacrifices so that you can serve.
